Thomas Watson Receives Weidemann & Wysocki Award from American Association for Justice

Portsmouth, NH (August 2010) – Thomas R. Watson, an attorney with the law firm of Wiggin & Nourie, P.A., of Portsmouth, New Hampshire received the Weidemann & Wysocki Award from the American Association for Justice (“AAJ”) at its annual meeting in July in Vancouver, British Columbia. Watson serves as an elected member of the Board of Governors of AAJ.

The Weidemann & Wysocki Award is annually awarded by AAJ to individuals who have demonstrated a deep commitment to the highest standard and duties of trial lawyers. This is the fourth year that Watson’s service to AAJ has been recognized. Previously, he received the Weidemann & Wysocki Award in 1999, 2000 and 2002.
